Builder Leg: A leg with at least 1 Active petPro and at least 1,000 DV in that leg.

Downline: Downline is any petPro you sponsor and the teams that develop beneath them to unlimited depth.

Downline Volume (DV): Downline Volume is the total Qualifying Volume (QV) from you and your entire downline organization, regardless of titles. All petPros in your organization are included.

EZ Ship: EZ Ship is any order that is set up to ship at a recurring interval.

Generation: A Generation is a downline group. A Generation starts with a Vice President (or higher title) below you, based on Career Title, and includes everyone below them, down to but not including the next Vice President (or higher title), based on Career Title. That next Vice President would be the start of a new generation, and so on.

Group: Your Group, also referred to as your personal group, includes you and everyone below you, down to but not including the next Vice President (or higher title), based on Career Title. Downline groups, meaning groups that belong to someone in your downline, are called “generations.”

Group Volume (GV): The PV from you and everyone in your personal group. Vice Presidents (or higher title, based on Career Title) in your downline are not included in your Group Volume except in the month they promote to Vice President.

Level: A Level is the position a petPro has in a downline relative to another upline or downline petPro. Your personally sponsored petPros are Level One. New Personal Volume (NPV): New Personal Volume (NPV) is any Personal Volume (PV) earned from a newly enrolled Retail or Paw Club customer on all orders placed during their enrollment period. If a Retail or Paw Club customer upgrades to a petPro within that same month, any additional orders they place will count as their own New PV starting from their petPro enrollment date. The same rules apply if a former petPro reinstates. This Volume is Volume from the First Order month based on the first order with PV date in the Customer Record.

New PV3: The combined New PV of a VP from the current period plus the previous two (2) periods. In other words, it is a 3-month rolling period of New PV.

Paid As Title: You are paid at the title for which you qualify during the period. If in any period you fail to achieve your career title, you are paid at the lower title to which you do qualify for during the period. You retain your career title but are paid as the title you actually qualify for.

Paw Club: When a customer has an active EZ Ship order, they are automatically a Paw Club member. For more information on Paw Club perks, go to your Pro Office.

pawPay Account: The pawPay Account is where the company deposits earned commissions. A petPro must set up their pawPay account for funds distribution to their desired financial institution or pawTree debit card.

Paw Points: Paw Points are loyalty points given to Paw Club members when they make product purchases. Paw Points can be spent on some but not all products in the catalog. Items eligible for point redemption are indicated in the online catalog. Paw Points can also be credited to petPros for some incentive and campaign rewards on occasion.
